Who says you can't have beautiful form, and function?

With traditional furniture, when there's a stain or broken part, you either have to live with the eyesore, or you have to toss it out and buy new.

What if we told you that you never have to trash another piece of furniture?

At Transformations, we know that life happens... to your furniture.

That's why stains, rips, and even broken parts don't mean the end for your pieces or your budget.

“We had two distributors for furniture at Whites... [Transformations Furniture] has by far outperformed the competition. Thanks for the best product on the market.”

– Tony Brown, Josiah White's

“We are very pleased with the design, as well as the quality of furniture that we have been provided in the past. [Transformations Furniture's Team] is absolutely fantastic to work with.”

– Ryan Stoudt, Alma College

Ashton

If you're looking for seating that combines structure and comfort while seamlessly complementing other furnishings in your space, the Ashton is an excellent choice. Put several Ashton pieces together in your lobby, office, or residence hall; or pair an Ashton chair with Benchmark ottomans and end tables for an environment that's full of character.

Bryant

The cultured and complementary Bryant makes a great neighbor when paired with our other collections and works well in a variety of settings, from common areas to therapy offices and dorm rooms. Whether guests, patients, or students prefer solitude or engaging in conversation, they will find comfort in your customized seating arrangements.

Butler

A good butler anticipates needs. This Butler does just that by welcoming your visitors, clients, or students and surrounding them in comfort. With its high back, this stately chair offers both privacy and support. You can easily create an intimate setting by nestling two Butler chairs together.

Knox & Knox Sectional

Kick back and relax in fluffy comfort. With choices ranging from a chair, loveseat, sofa, ottoman, and sectional, our Knox collection can transform any space into a cozy haven that's destined to be the favorite spot to unwind and get away from the action.

Max

This one-of-a-kind chair was crafted to add unique aesthetic appeal to any environment. From a busy lobby to a university study hall, the Max's mid-back design encourages conversation and interaction, while simultaneously providing support that's as comfortable as a hug.

Pivot

You spin me round like a record baby. The Pivot chair makes it easy to enjoy everything about a space. Your students, patients, or visitors can chat with a group in one seating area, and when the game on the big screen gets exciting, pivot right around to cheer for their team. This chair's sleek design, beautifully sweeping curves, and unique function make it a top choice for any seating area.

Ridge

Curves and angles meet in perfect harmony in the Ridge. When you need your lounge or residence hall to be a space that not only brings people together but showcases fluid creativity, the Ridge surpasses expectations. This robust collection of individual pieces and sectional units has configurations that allow you to make the most of your space with clean lines and sleek curves. Make your furniture bend around a stationary structure or create multiple sight lines easily with the Ridge.

“Transformations has put together a great product and the service has been excellent.”

– Chris Ralphs, Southern Utah University

“Your company was easy to work with and the process to get replacement items wasn’t difficult. That shows the company cares.”

– Heather Marcus, Ridgewater College

“We have been so happy with all our purchases. It’s amazing how well your products hold up to the students.”

– As quoted by an associate director from a doctoral university with very high research activity

“The quality of the furniture and the customer service have made our relationship easy to manage.”

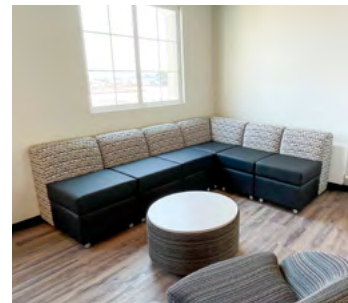

– As quoted by a facilities manager from a master’s college with larger programs

“Transformations is truly a great vendor. One of my best stories is the one for the MTSU housing, where they actually sent folks with sewing machines to the site to sew slipcovers to make a date on some warranty product.”

– Jane Micsak | Nashville Office Interiors [NOI]

“Transformations Furniture continues to be a crucial partner in spaces and places across the higher education landscape. I never doubt the durability and quality of the products, and all the Transformations’ team members I have encountered at both Eastern Kentucky University and now Ohio University have been outstanding.

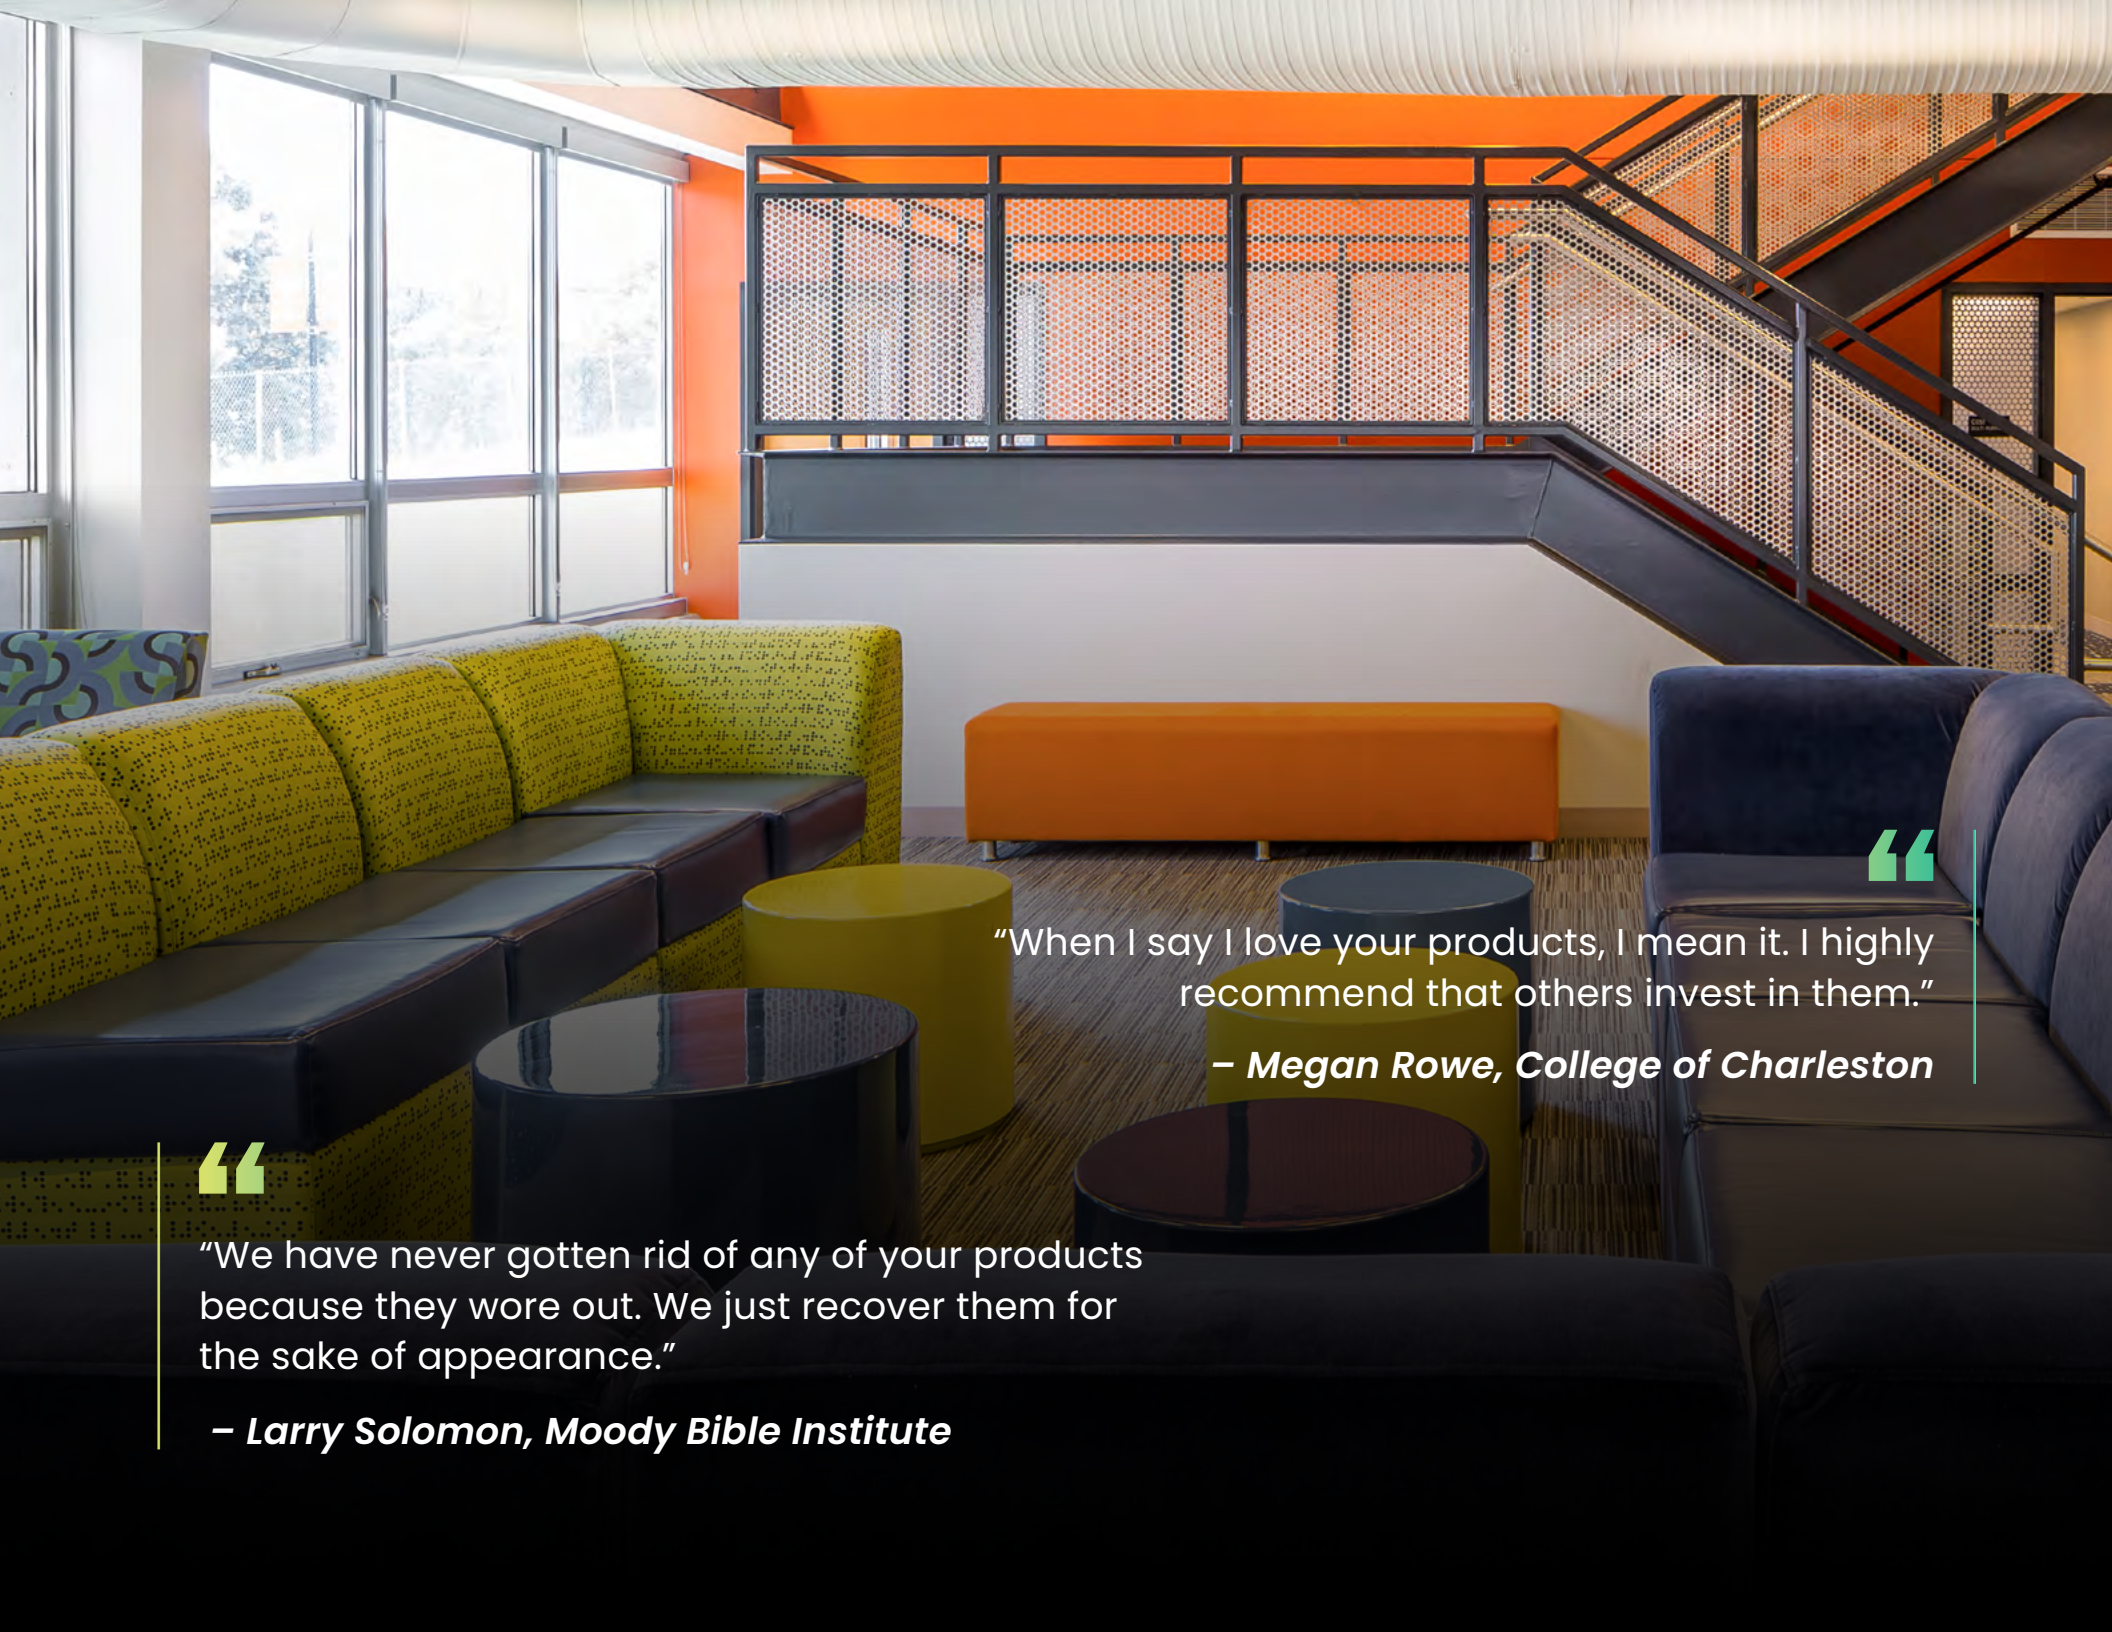

As we move forward and build our new residence hall, McDavis Hall, I am excited for Transformations Furniture products to be part of that story. I welcome the opportunity to have you and your team tour the building. It has 20 different engagement spaces, many of them featuring Transformations Pivot chairs.

Since my time at OHIO, we have installed Transformations Furniture in two residence halls and have now made this product a staple in our staff apartments. We put Pivots in our sunroom at the oldest residence hall, Bryan Hall. It allows students to collaborate and enjoy beautiful views of our East Green.

I am so thankful to you and your team and the way you enhanced the campus at my alma mater but also here in Athens at OHIO. Take care and keep shining!”

– Chris Owens, Director for Housing Capital and Facilities Planning, Ohio University

“We have never gotten rid of any of your products because they wore out. We just recover them for the sake of appearance.”

– Larry Solomon, Moody Bible Institute

“When I say I love your products, I mean it. I highly recommend that others invest in them.”

– Megan Rowe, College of Charleston
